Draw a large picture of the character below. It can be as simple as a stick figure or something more complex. Using evidence from the various primary sources supplied, answer the following prompt questions.

Head
What is this person thinking about his or her society?

Eyes
What has this person seen?

Mouth
What is this person saying?

Ears
What has this person heard?

Heart
What is this person feeling? What does he or she care about?

Stomach
What is this person worried about?

Hands
What action has this person taken?

Feet
Has this person changed? Where might this person be going in the future?