“My Freedom Dream” Capstone Project Reflection

Directions: Complete the following reflection questions before you write your poem and submit them to your teacher with your poem.

Audience: Who would you most like to reach with your poem? (Using the levers of power framework, identify a group or individual who has the power to help make your freedom dream a reality.)

Content: Explain why the content of your poem will resonate with your intended audience.

Inspiration: What sources, learning, or research from this unit or your US History course served as source material or inspiration for this poem?

High-Level Reflection: What new, different, or deeper understanding do you have about freedom and democracy after writing this poem? About US History?
