

LESSON 1 The Sharps' Dilemmas

Historical Character Map

Draw a large picture of either Waitstill or Martha Sharp below. It can be as simple as a stick figure or something more complex. Using evidence from the various primary sources supplied, answer the following prompt questions.

Head

What is this person thinking about his or her society?

Eyes

What has this person seen?

Ears

What has this person heard?

Mouth

What is this person saying?

Heart

What is this person feeling?
What does he or she care about?

Stomach

What is this person worried about?

Hands

What action has this person taken?

Feet

Has this person changed? Where might this person be going in the future?